The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 27, to Tuesday April 30, 1751.

Naples, April 16.

IN Conſequence of the Orders lately iſſued by the King for the eſtabliſhing an Academy for the Inſtruction of Youth in the Art of Navigation, ſeveral young Gentlemen of the beſt Families in this Kingdom have already entred themſelves to be inſtructed in that moſt uſeful Art, in order to qualify themſelves for Officers on board our Men of War and Gallies. The Corſairs of Barbary, which for ſome Time paſt have appeared in great Numbers on the Coaſt of Calabria, have entirely diſappeared for ſeveral Days together, on Advice that ſome Ships of War in this Port were almoſt ready to put to Sea in order to give them Chace.

Rome, April 17. On Sunday laſt, being Eaſter-Day, the Pope went in State to the Vatican Church, where he officiated Pontifically at a Grand Maſs, at which aſſiſted upwards of thirty Cardinals, beſides a great Number of Archbiſhops and Biſhops; and after Maſs he gave the uſual Benediction to an infinite Number of People who were aſſembled together for that Purpoſe. A Project is on Foot for widening conſiderably the Mouth of the Tiber, by which Means all great Floods will the eaſier paſs off into the Sea, and prevent many Inundations. The Pope ſeems greatly inclined to favour this Project, and till Money can be raiſed for carrying it into Execution, very large Ditches are ordered to be dug ſo as to receive and carry off all Overflowings of the Waters of that River, which will greatly encreaſe the Value of all the Lands thereabouts.

Florence, April 17. Count Charles, Son of Count Richecount, Preſident of the Council of this Regency, who came hither a few Days ago from Leghorn in Company with ſeveral young Noblemen who had been with him in his Voyage to the Levant on board the Emperor's three Men of War, has brought with him ſeveral very great and valuable Curioſities, moſt of which he has preſented to his Father and to the other Lords of the Regency. They write from Trieſte, that a Ship was juſt arrived there from the Barbary Shore, the Maſter of which affirms, that no leſs than twenty eight Corſairs ſailed from the Port of Algiers the Beginning of this Month, in order to cruize on the Chriſtian Powers, and that they ſteered their Courſe towards the Sicilian and Adriatick Seas; of which the Court of Naples, the Religion of Malta, and the Republick of Genoa having been informed, were equipping with all Diligence ſeveral Men of War and Galliots in order to protect their Trade and purſue thoſe Pyrates.

Warſaw, April 23. We begin to flatter ourſelves with the Hopes of ſeeing their Majeſties here again this Year; and 'tis ſaid that the Biſhoprick of Cujavia, which has been vacant about two Months, will not be filled up till after their Majeſties Arrival. Marſhal Lowendahl is expected here in a few Days, and 'tis believed intends to ſet out on his Return to France the Beginning of next Month. According to different Advices from Podolia, the Turks ſeem to be making great Preparations for War both on the Frontiers of the Ukraine and Tartary, but with what Views no one at preſent can tell.

Vienna, April 24. The Deputies from the States of Hungary, who arrived here a few Days ago from Preſbourg, have already been admitted to their Audiences of their Imperial Majeſties. Part of the Equipage of Prince Charles of Lorrain is already arrived here, but his Highneſs is not expected at Preſbourg till the Month of June. This Day the Court went into Mourning for ſix Months on Occaſion of the Death of the Prince of Wales. We are aſſured that the Pope has authorized her Imperial Majeſty to levy a Tenth upon the Revenues of the Clergy in all her Hereditary Countries. It appears by a Liſt of the Forces her Imperial Majeſty has now on Foot, that they conſiſt of 56 Regiments of Infantry, eight of Cuiraſſiers, two of Dragoons and ten of Huſſars, beſides four Regiments of Carlſtadians, three of Sclavonians, and two of Waradins, and ſome Companies of Huſſars which are upon the Repartition of Hungary and Sirmia.

Dreſden, April 24. The King, who ſet out a few Days ago for Torgow, in order to take the Diverſion of Hunting, is expected here again on Wedneſday next, the Departure of the Court for Leipſick being fixt for the firſt of next next Month, where they propoſe ſtaying during the whole Time of the Fair, which, according to all Appearance, will be very brilliant this Year. 'Tis reported that a Camp will be formed in the Neighbourhood of this City ſome Time in June next, in order to exerciſe the Troops of this Electorate.

Chamberry, April 24. The Count de la Tour, whom the King of Sardinia ſent ſome Time ago to Berne, in order to renew the Capitulation for the Swiſs Regiment belonging to that Canton in the Service of his Majeſty, having happily terminated that Commiſſion, paſſed by this Place on Tueſday laſt on his Return to Turin. We learn from Lyons, that ſeveral Manufacturers in the Silk Trade have been lately ſtopt there with their Effects, on a Suſpicion of their having a Deſign to leave the Country.

Munich, April 27. On Friday laſt was celebrated at Court the Feaſt of the Order of St. George, when his Electoral Highneſs created Count Perouſe, her Imperial Majeſty's Grand Maſter of the Houſehold, and the Count de Thoring, Son of the Field Marſhal of that Name, Knights of that Order.

Ratisbon, April 29 To-morrow they begin to deliberate in the Aſſembly of the Diet upon the Affair of the Guarantee of the Treaty of Dreſden by the Empire; and as the reſpective Miniſters have received the neceſſary Inſtructions on that Head, 'tis not doubted but that it will ſoon be terminated.

Franckfort, May 1. We have received Advice from Munſter, that on the 16th paſt they had a moſt violent Storm of Thunder and Lightening, which fell on the Tower of the Church of St. Lambert, but it was ſoon extinguiſhed without doing any conſiderable Damage.
